Partner Programs

Through Growing Rural Independence Together, you can get the individualized help you need to understand your strengths and how it maps into the modern workforce.
The GRIT Project includes help for students and adults on the journey to uncovering financial independence through jobs. Each participant begins with a career assessment and then a one-on-one coaching session with a career specialist.

Through these conversations a plan is developed to enroll in work skills training, if needed, and then to identify jobs, either in-person or work-from-home.

The Ashtabula County Safety Council (ACSC) is administered by the Ashtabula County Technical & Career Campus (A-Tech). ACSC is sponsored by the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC) Safety and Hygiene Division.

MISSION: The Ashtabula County Safety Council will provide a forum for information, education and recognition to promote community health, safety and environmental awareness.

Enrollment in a Safety Council is open to all state funds, self-insured companies, and public employers in Ohio who pay premiums or administrative fees to BWC. To enroll, an employer must have active BWC coverage. Meetings are held monthly.
