Communication is a shared experience and we intend to make that experience easier.

From time to time, parents and other community members may have questions or concerns about our educational programs and services. So that we can respond to these issues in a timely manner, this communications chain of command is provided for your use.

Ashtabula Area City Schools Board of Education Policy #9130 defines a “chain of command” to follow for conflict resolution:

Level 1: If a parent has a concern with their child:

Contact should be with the teacher or other staff member involved.

Level 2: If the matter cannot be satisfactorily resolved at the First Level:

Discuss issue with the staff member’s principal/supervisor.

Level 3: If a satisfactory solution is not achieved by discussion with the principal/supervisor:

Request a conference with the Superintendent/Director of Pupil Services.

Level 4: Should the matter not be request, a meeting with the Board of Education.
