Free “STOP THE BLEED” Trainings Being Offered

Fairfield, CA –The Bay Area Urban Areas Security Initiative (UASI) has provided funding to offer free "STOP THE BLEED" trainings to the public and organizations in Solano and Napa Counties. These hands-on trainings provide essential skills to help participants recognize and respond to life-threatening bleeding emergencies, a crucial skill that can save lives before professional help arrives.

Participants will receive training from professionals at the Raytom Group and a complimentary STOP THE BLEED kit, empowering them with the tools and knowledge to act quickly in an emergency at work, home or in the community.

Training Sessions and Registration

The public and local organizations are welcome to participate. Three sessions are available:

September 11, 2024:

9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

2:00 PM – 6:00 PM

September 12, 2024:

9:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Location: Solano County Office of Education, 5100 Business Center Dr., Fairfield, CA 94534

Registration: Spaces are limited, and early registration is encouraged. Attendees can register here.

STOP THE BLEED is a national awareness campaign and call-to-action that trains bystanders to become immediate responders during emergencies. With proper training, individuals can effectively control severe bleeding, significantly increasing the chances of survival in critical situations. The "STOP THE BLEED" initiative aims to build a more resilient community through education and preparedness.

The Bay Area Urban Areas Security Initiative (UASI) strengthens the region's ability to prevent, protect, respond to, and recover from terrorist attacks, natural disasters, and other emergencies.
