Daily Bulletin
Friday, October 30, 2026

Today, October 30, is Costume Day! Dress in your favorite costume. Dress code still applies! No weapons.

8 grade Volleyball, Congrats on an awesome season Breakers!!! Great win against North Monterey County! We are so excited to host the playoffs on Monday! GO BREAKERS!!!

Attention 6th grade students: Outdoor Science School is Tuesday, November 3, through Friday, November 6. If you are not attending, you will have an alternate schedule that can be picked up Tuesday morning from the office.

Attention students, the TED class is making catapults and is in need of small pumpkins. If you would like to donate your pumpkins after this weekend, please bring it to Mr. Enterline's room 33 on Monday, November 2 & Tuesday, November 3.

Need Community Service Hours? The Pacific Grove Public Library is looking for volunteers Thursday, November 5, from 3:30-4:30 p.m. Registration is required, call 831-648-5760, or go to mbispo@cityofpacificgrove.org

Fall Ball is Friday, November 6, from 7:00-9:00 p.m. This event is for 7th & 8th grade students only, and will take place in the courtyard by the garden. The cost is $10.00.

Winter Basketball signups for 6th GRADE ONLY will be today, October 30. Signups will be held during lunch in the GYM. Just a reminder, you can attend clinics without a physical but must have a current physical on file to participate in tryouts & practices. If you are unsure if you have one, please swing by the office and speak to Ms. Gibson.

Reminder that if you signed up to watch Halloweentown, come to Mrs. G's room Today & Tomorrow at lunch! Use your line cut pass both 3 days, and please hustle because the movie will start without you!

Winter Basketball signups for 7th & 8th GRADE ONLY will be next Thursday, November 5, & Friday, November 6. Signups will be held during lunch in the GYM. Just a reminder, you can attend clinics without a physical but must have a current physical on file to participate in tryouts & practices. If you are unsure if you have one, please swing by the office and speak to Ms. Gibson.

Attention Students: Come carve a pumpkin for free tomorrow, October 30, at the PG Youth Center. We are located at 302 16th Street across from City Hall. The After School Program will provide all supplies and carving materials. Enter your pumpkin into our contest for most creative, spookiest, or best classic pumpkin. Registration required for accurate pumpkin count at www.cityofpg.org/recreation. Drop ins are not guaranteed a pumpkin.

Attention Girls Basketball Players: If you are planning on playing basketball this year, there will be a basketball clinic, tomorrow, October 31. The clinic will run from 10 - 12 on the outdoor courts. If you are playing another sport, you are not expected to participate. If you are not playing another sport, this will be a great time to work on your fundamentals! Hopefully, I will see you there.

The yearbook cover contest is going on right now until today, October 30. All PGMS students can submit multiple entries. Front cover only graphics, on a standard 8 ½ x 11 white paper, on through Canva. Should be "Road Trip" themed, with the tagline "Love the Journey", 2026-2027. You can create this image on a plain piece of paper, or through Canva. Please drop off to Ms. Griffin in room 7, or though her email at sgriffin@pgusd.org Winner get a free yearbook!

7th grade girls volleyball games:
• Monday, November 2, Playoff game, TBD
• Wednesday, November 4, Championship game, TBD

8th grade girls volleyball games:
• Monday, November 2, Playoff game, TBD
• Wednesday, November 4, Championship game, TBD

Boys Volleyball games
• Monday, November 2, Playoff game, TBD
• Wednesday, November 4, Championship game, TBD

Cross Country Meets:
• Today, October 30, at 4:00 p.m., at PGMS ~ David Ave. MTJAL Championships ~ early release 2:50 p.m.