Dear RBHS student,

As you embark on your quest for college and money to help you attend college, this handbook can serve as one tool you can use to obtain information about scholarships. Scholarships are usually provided by companies or individuals who believe in the benefit of a college education and believe in helping students financially achieve that goal.

This information is a service to you from Red Bluff High School. It is not meant to be a listing of all scholarships available. It is a compilation of scholarship information that we have information on as a school. Locating, applying, and getting scholarships is very time consuming. Those who work the hardest at scholarship searches will probably reap the most benefits.

Scholarships have criteria and deadlines. Criteria can range from GPA qualifications or perimeters, to financial need, to community service, etc. The provider is giving the money away, so they can set the criteria however they see fit. They also all have deadlines. If you miss the deadline, you miss out. Sometimes providers change their deadlines after publications are complete.

So, deadlines listed in this handbook are APPROXIMATE (based on previous year's deadlines). Be proactive and do scholarship searches early and often to know what is expected and to know the accurate deadline.

Another suggestion is to sign up with an online scholarship bank. You can find many choices listed under the "Other Scholarships" link on our webpage. You create a profile, and they will send you information on scholarships that may fit you.

Again, scholarships take work. Most of them don't come find you. You must find them. As far as the listing of monthly scholarships, some have websites to download applications, and some applications can be obtained in the Counseling Center. Good luck in your search for scholarship money. If you have questions now or throughout the year, make an appointment with your counselor.

Have a great school year,

The Counseling Center

The following scholarship providers use the RBHS Community Scholarship to select their recipients. (Please understand that awards and requirements are subject to change)

The Community Scholarship Application will be available online in January. It needs to be typed and proofread. You will find it on the Counseling webpage under the Senior scholarship tab.

Due: March 2 by 3:30 pm.

Navy ROTC-Immediate Scholarship Reservation (ISR)
Selected applicants must gain admittance to their university of choice on their own initiative. The university must have a Navy ROTC unit – more than 153 of our nation's leading colleges and universities do. While selectees may major in any field and must take a normal course load required for their degree, their curriculum must also include nine Naval Science courses, and one year each of Calculus, Physics, National Security Policy/US Military Affairs, English Grammar and Composition, and World Culture/Regional Studies. Upon degree completion, each selectee will be commissioned as an officer in the US Navy, and will serve a minimum five-year active duty service obligation.
Minimum standards for an ISR scholarship:

- Must be a US citizen with no criminal record or history of drug use
- Must be a high school senior in the top 20% of their class
- Have qualifying SAT scores (550 critical reading, 600 math; 1230 combined) or ACT scores (22 English, 26 math, 54 combined)
- Applicant should exhibit leadership qualities through significant extra-curricular activities and be regarded as a role model by teachers and peers

Award: Full tuition and other financial benefits up to $180,000.
See your counselor if you meet the qualifications and want to be nominated.

John F. Kennedy Profile in Courage Essay Contest

In Profiles in Courage, John F. Kennedy recounted the stories of eight U.S. senators who risked their careers to do what was right for the nation. These leaders demonstrated political courage by taking a stand for the public good in spite of pressure by interest groups, their political party, or even their constituents. The Profile in Courage Essay Contest challenges students to write an original and creative essay that demonstrates an understanding of political courage as described by John F. Kennedy in Profiles in Courage.

All submissions must adhere to contest requirements.

Award: First place winner receives $10,000, second place receives $3000, up to 5 finalists receive $1000 each, and 8 honorable mentions receive $100 each

Kids' Chance of California Scholarships

Every year, thousands of California workers are seriously injured at work and more than 350 are killed. These events can devastate families. Part of the fallout can include a significant reduction in income that makes saving money for college or vocational school seem out of reach. Kids' Chance of California is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to provide need-based educational scholarships to children of California workers who have been fatally or seriously injured on the job.

Getting Real About Distracted Driving Scholarship

Design an advertisement that will educate the public about the dangers of distracted driving, and convince them with a clear call to action not to text and drive, drink and drive, eat and drive, or any other distraction you choose to focus on. You may focus on distracted driving as a whole, or pick a specific kind of distracted driving, but the message/focus of your advertisement must be clear. You will be judged based on the quality of the content, it's usability as an ad (billboard, commercial, PSA, poster, radio ad, etc.) and how it effectively convinces drivers to stay focused on the road. We are looking for creative, and helpful ads with maybe a bit of humor or irony.
