1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

The Prop 28 Arts Education Program made it possible to expand our District VAPA program to incorporate Music Instruction by contracting 2 part-time music teachers from the Trinity County Office of Education. These instructors were able to provide weekly Music instruction to all students, grades TK-8, enrolled in our District. The Music instructors taught all students how to read music, play instruments, and perform for our school community. The students in grades 4-8 were also given the opportunity to be in our Junction City School Band and perform at the Trinity County Young Artists Showcase, at the Trinity Alps Performing Arts Center, and at our local Farmer's Market.
