WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION PLAN

It is the policy of the Lassen County Office of Education to provide a safe and secure work environment that has no tolerance for harassment, intimidation, threats or acts of violence in the workplace. Any behavior that raises concerns for the safety of another person's life, health, well-being, family, or property, whether direct or indirect, constitutes unacceptable conduct.

The Lassen County Superintendent of Schools shall take appropriate actions to enhance the safety, as fully as possible, of LCOE employees and members of the organization from harassment, intimidation, threats, and acts of violence, which may occur at the workplaces, and during the performance of everyday duties.

No tolerance means that every act of violence in the workplace, regardless of nature, must be reported to your director, manager, or supervisor and to LCOE Human Resources (530)257-7214.

Acts of violence, threats of violence, theft, dishonesty, discrimination, retaliation, and sexual harassment should be considered urgent and will be taken seriously.

The topics and content of the LCOE Workplace Violence Prevention Plan are required for compliance with SB 533. This plan will:

- 1) Provide all relevant definitions relating to this plan.
- 2) Provide the procedures for reporting hazards.
- 3) Identify responsibilities for carrying out the plan.
- 4) Provide direction for follow-up following incidents and annual review of this plan.

SENATE BILL NO. 553 CORTESE, OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY – RESTRAINING ORDERS

Workplace violence: restraining orders and workplace violence prevention plan.

Existing law authorizes any employer, whose employee has suffered unlawful violence or a credible threat of violence from any individual that can reasonably be construed to be carried out or to have been carried out at the workplace, to seek a temporary restraining order and an order after hearing on behalf of the employee and other employees at the workplace, as described.

FORMS OF WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Workplace violence may take many forms, including written threats by letter, fax, and electronic mail; social media; text messages or online posts; or verbal threats delivered in person or by telephone. Other forms of workplace violence include intimidation, harassment (including sexual harassment) mugging, robbery, or attempted robbery, as well as destruction of property. Extremely serious ones could be physical assault, bomb threats or mass/active shooter threats, rape and/or murder.

Assault: Physical or verbal attack on someone, which results in bodily or emotional injury, pain and/or distress. Assault may involve hitting, punching, poking, kicking and/or use of a weapon.

Threat: Any written or oral expression or gesture that could be interpreted by a reasonable person to convey an intent of physical harm to persons or property.

There are several types of threats to be aware of:

- Direct Threats - Straightforward and explicit statements of the intent to commit harm.
- Indirect Threats - Vague, unclear, and ambiguous statements whereby the plan, the intended victim, the motivation, and other aspects of the threat are masked or equivocal.
- Veiled Threats - Indirect, vague, or subtle statements suggesting potential harm. This includes statements such as "He won't get away with this," "I'll get her or show her" or, "They'll see."
- Conditional Threats - Statements intending harm and specifying either conditions or demands to be met to stop the harm or conditions under which the threat will be carried out.
- Implausible Threats - Statements of intended harm that are unrealistic and impossible to carry out.
 - Intimidating or Harassing Behavior -Threats or other conduct which can lead to hostile work environments, impede operations, and/or inhibit and frighten others.
 - Physical Intimidation or Harassment -This may involve blocking movement, holding, grabbing, following, touching or any other inappropriate or unwanted physical contact.
 - Psychological Intimidation or Harassment: This may involve making malicious, rude, derogatory, disrespectful, insubordinate, disparaging, false, obnoxious, discriminatory, or abusive statements with the intent to hurt the reputation of others.

CONSIDER THE ACT OR THREAT OF VIOLENCE:

If you consider the act or threat of violence as serious, immediately call 911, then call your director, manager, supervisor or the County Superintendent and fill out the WVPP Incident Log:

DISCRIMINATION/RETALIATION

Discrimination, retaliation, and sexual harassment must be reported to the director, manager, or supervisor and to Human Resources. It is a violation of this policy for a director, manager, supervisor, or co-worker, to retaliate, in any form, against an employee who reports, threatens to report, or files a report of a complaint of violence in the workplace or participates in an investigation alleging violence in the workplace. Acts of retaliation will not be condoned.

If unsure as to what must be reported in a report, you may contact Human Resources.

DEFINITIONS

Workplace - Anywhere an LCOE employee is conducting authorized LCOE business; en route to and from (excluding normal commute) a location where LCOE business is, will be, or has been conducted; all LCOE-owned buildings or leased spaces, classrooms, and parking facilities, including space within buildings shared with other departments, districts, or agencies; any work site or workspace occupied by LCOE employees, whether or not the space is owned or leased by LCOE.

Please note that employees of LCOE must be aware of and follow the safety and workplace violence plans of schools they are assigned in addition to the LCOE procedures.

EXAMPLES OF WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Examples of workplace violence include but is not limited to:

- Hitting, shoving, striking, or blocking an individual.
- Shouting, yelling or verbal harassment, directly or indirectly.
- Threatening an individual or his/her family, friends, associates, or property with harm.

- Unauthorized possession or inappropriate use of firearms or weapons (see weapons prohibited below).
- Threatening or attempting self-injury or suicide.

HINTS TO HANDLE A POTENTIAL OR ACTUAL VIOLENT INCIDENT: KNOW THE WARNING SIGNS

Research into incidents of workplace violence shows the presence of at least several of the following characteristics in a potentially violent individual. Clearly, not everyone who exhibits one or more of these warning signs is potentially violent. Understanding these signs, recognizing them when they occur, and acting on that knowledge and recognition are vital steps in heading off tragedy:

- Making direct or indirect threats.
- Intimidating, belligerent, harassing, bullying, or other inappropriate or aggressive behavior.
- Statements showing fascination with incidents of workplace violence, statements indicating approval of the use of violence to resolve a problem, or statements indicating identification with perpetrators of workplace homicides.
- Statements indicating desperation (over family, financial, and other personal problems) to the point of suicide.
- Extreme changes in behavior.
- Numerous conflicts with supervisors and other employees.
- Bringing a weapon to the workplace, brandishing a weapon in the workplace, making inappropriate references to guns, or fascination with weapons.

BE PROACTIVE

Directors, managers, or supervisors are accountable for recognizing a potentially threatening situation. Before a potential or actual violent incident occurs, directors, managers, and supervisors shall:

- Foster a supportive, harmonious work environment. Mutual respect can help reduce harassment and hostility in the workplace.
- Communicate openly and give employees support and recognition.
- Train directors, managers, supervisors, and employees on how to resolve conflicts.
- Develop skills in effective communication, team building and resolving disputes.
- When appropriate refer employees to counseling or Employee Assistance Program (EAP) programs.

- Argue with the other person.
- Use defensive sprays or weapons.
- Fight with the other person.
- Chase the other person.
- Try to break up or intervene in a violent act; or
- Risk getting hurt yourself.

Directors, managers, and supervisors may also offer or refer affected employees' critical incident or professional counseling through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP). EAP provides employees with free, easily accessible, and confidential resources for addressing personal concerns.

<https://www.cvtrust.org/products/employee-assistance>

If you have reason to believe an employee will act violently towards others, immediately contact Human Resources. The Associate Superintendent of HR may recommend utilizing administrative leave or time off in accordance with LCOE Policy to excuse the individual from the workplace.

In lieu of administrative leave or time off, Human Resources may consider other options for resolution such as a cooling down period, reassignment, additional supervision, counseling and coaching or mentoring.

Employee(s) returning to the workplace from violence related administrative leave shall be counseled with the Workplace Violence Prevention Plan prior to assuming their regular work duties. Depending upon circumstances, additional counseling and/or discipline may be appropriate per applicable bargaining agreement.
