GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Buy your yearbook now for $70.00. Purchase a book before Christmas break and you will have a chance to win a Starbucks or Dutch Bros gift card! See Amy in the office to purchase!
2. Friday Night Live is proudly participating in a community outreach project to support the cats at Hidden Treasures Cat Rescue and Sanctuary. FNL will be collecting cat food, cat treats, cat toys, and clean blankets and towels. A donation box will be set up in the office until December 5th, if you would like to donate. Your kindness and donation is greatly appreciated.

3. Attention all juniors interested in the State Seal of Civic Engagement. We have two seats left for the civic summit at Chico State on the 9th of January. Please sign up in the counseling office.
4. Volunteer opportunity for St. Monica's "A Night in Bethlehem" Christmas event on 12/5/25. St. Monica's is looking for volunteers for this Friday's event to set up or clean up. Get your hours in before the semester ends! Sign up in the counseling office by Thursday.
5. Attention all young ladies ages 15-17 considering a future in firefighting: Applications are now open for Camp Cinder, a FREE week-long camp in Redding running from June 22nd-June 25th. Featuring lots of hands-on, practical experience, the mission of camp cinder is to provide young women a safe, dynamic, interactive and challenging environment to gain strength, knowledge, and confidence in their ability to excel in the profession of firefighting and beyond. If you are interested in signing up, come see Mrs. Spooner in 204 or Google "Camp Cinder". Deadline to apply is January 31st.
6. I would like to invite all 2025 Cross Country runners and 2025 JV Boys Track and Field athletes to join in the Light Parade this Saturday. We would like to celebrate our League Championship wins this year and promote our team. Please have interested runners/athletes come see Mrs. LaGrande in room 404 for details.
