Concord, CA 94520

Agency Profile

Through our Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) program, trained volunteers advocate for foster youth—ensuring their needs are met and helping them access the resources to thrive. We recruit, train, and support volunteers for both the CASA and Tutor programs.

Key Services Offered

- CASA volunteer advocates
- Trauma-informed tutoring
- Reproductive health information

Who to Refer

Foster youth in grades K-12 who want tutoring can be referred for a 1:1 match with a qualified tutor. CASA referrals are made only by court appointment.

Mission Statement

Our mission at Child Advocates of Contra Costa County is to provide programs and support for abused and neglected children in foster care to help every child find a permanent home and complete their education.

How to Refer

Referral form shared within this network or email. Do not include any child's name or identifying information in your email. The Tutor Coordinator will follow up with you to gather details.

Agency Profile

Child Protective Services (CPS) is the primary system for addressing child abuse and neglect in California. Under existing law, CPS provides services to abused and neglected children and their families. The goal of CPS is to keep children safely in their own homes whenever possible. When a child is at risk and remaining at home is not safe, CPS works to develop an alternative plan as quickly as possible.

Mission Statement

Employment and Human Services (EHSD) partners with the community to deliver quality services to ensure access to resources that support, protect, and empower individuals and families to achieve self-sufficiency.
