

THE DAILY DAWG

♥️ ♥️ Battle of the Bulldogs ♥️ ♥️

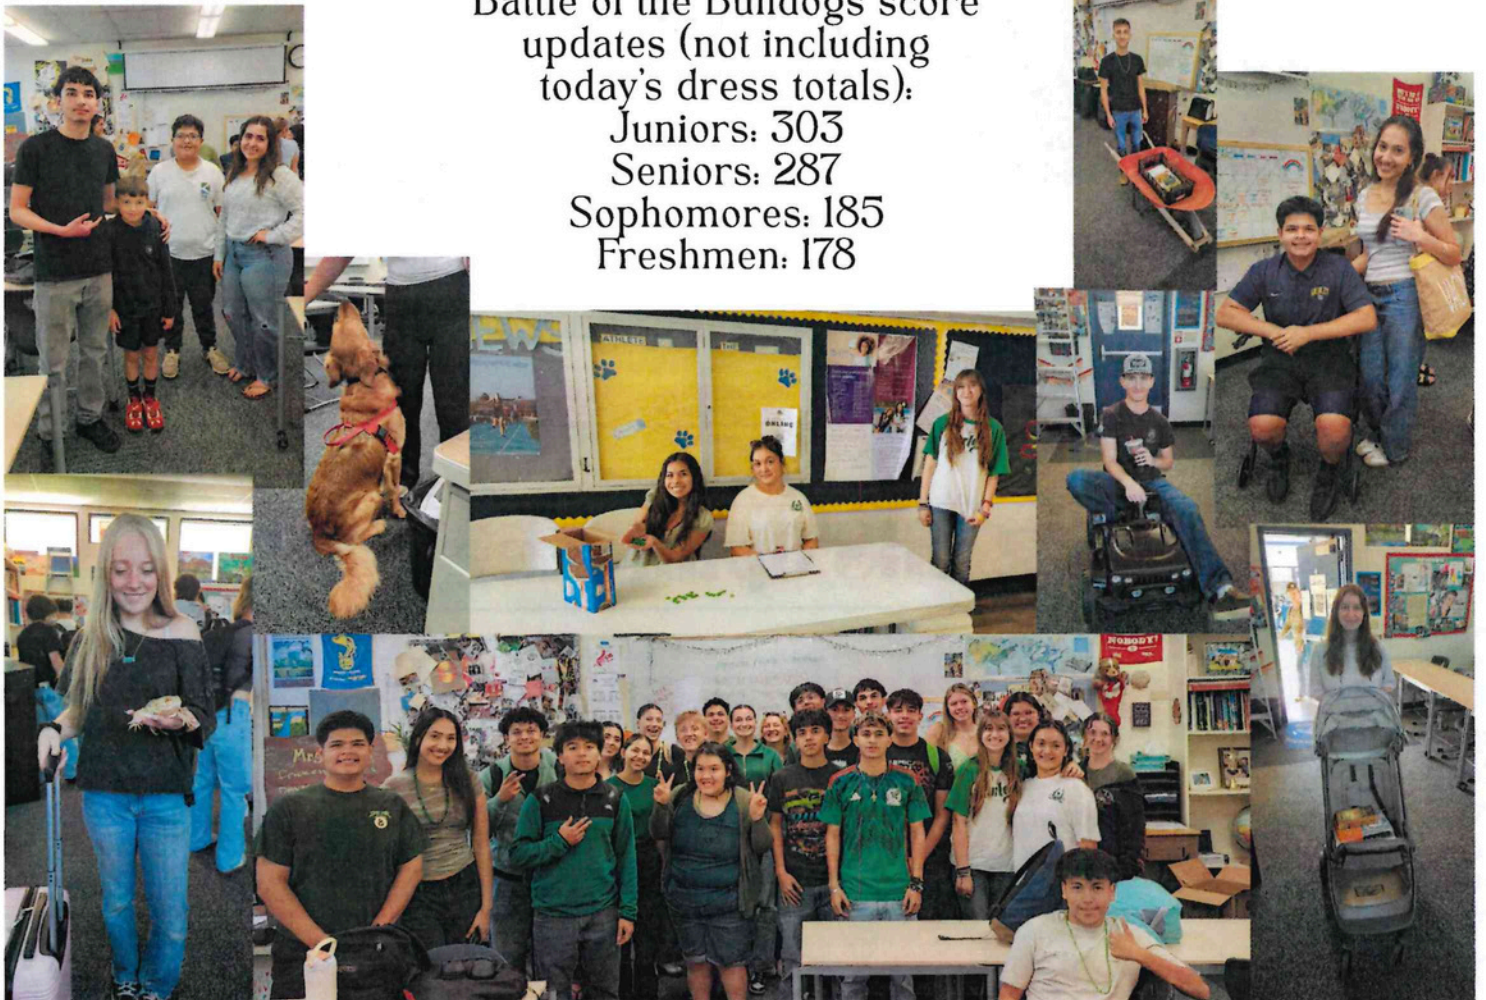

Battle of the Bulldogs is underway! So far the juniors have participated slightly more each day than the seniors, enabling them to hang on to their small lead. Monday was Hawaiian Day, where people were ready to spend the day at the beach in flower leis and Hawaiian shirts. Tuesday was St. Patrick's Day, with everyone decked out in their best green attire. Many students looked for the small hidden shamrocks around campus and turned them in at lunch for points for their class and an ice cream bar. Yesterday was Anything but a Backpack Day, which brought suitcases, ice chests, wheelbarrows, and even boats to the campus! Today, students got ready for a blast from the past as they dressed up in early 2000's styles.

Still hoping to earn your class more points? There's still time! Look for the small bulldogs hidden around campus to grab free stuff in your class color today at lunch. Take your bulldog(s) to the table in the hallway to get a bandana or beads in your class color to wear tomorrow.

Come watch the folleyball games tonight at 6:45 to earn points for your class! Admission to the games is free, and it's an easy way to add points to your class score.

The Class Colors for tomorrow are yellow for the Freshmen, purple for the Sophomores, blue for the Juniors, and pink for the Seniors. Remember, the winning class at the end of the week gets to be released 15 minutes early for lunch on Friday, so make sure to dress up and participate!

Battle of the Bulldogs score updates (not including today's dress totals):
 Juniors: 303
 Seniors: 287
 Sophomores: 185
 Freshmen: 178

📸 Photos of the Week 📸

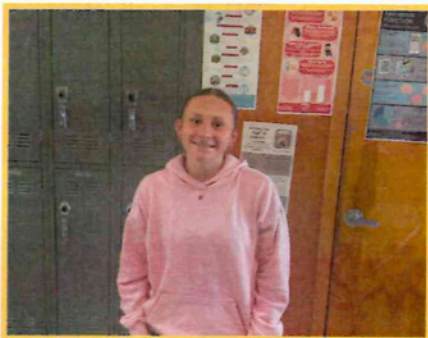

Congrats to Ali Browning for the photo of the week, making this her third time achieving this honor. Alli was at the right place and the right moment to capture Madelyn Sharrock as she crossed the finish line of the 800-meter race at Pleasant Valley High School.

It's not often we have two photos of the week. Our yearbook staff has been on the road documenting spring sports. Adrianna Villarreal traveled to Lindhurst to capture the JV softball game and timed the shot just right. From the shutter speed, composition, timing, and position, Adrianna earns FOTW for the 5th time in two books.
