workshop

Saturday, February 28th
10am to 11:15am
29751 Crown Valley Parkway
Free & for all ages!

Join us for an engaging workshop presented by Autism Speaks. Learn how to better understand autism, recognize early signs, and explore local resources available in South Orange County. Families will have the opportunity to craft a sensory toolkit together, filled with comfort items that can help ease daily challenges and create calm moments. This workshop is recommended for families and community members. Pre-registration is encouraged.
