

21st Century Skills

Taught by Ms. Danysse

Life Skills!

This course is intended to prepare students for college and career by teaching skills they will need through hands-on projects that instill skills such as reading, writing, editing, organization, meeting deadlines, working as a group to do collaborative projects.

