

DAILY BULLETIN

TUESDAY

FEBRUARY 3 2026

Athletic Events	Detention
	Mr Elford - B5

Attention all athletes interested in playing softball who are not playing a winter sport. Tryouts will be this week Tuesday-Thursday from 3:30-5:30 pm on the varsity softball field

The Winter Homecoming dance is Saturday, February 7th! Tickets are on sale at the ASB window during break, lunch, before, or after school. Tickets are $20 each. If you are wanting to bring a guest make sure to turn in your guest form by TOMORROW February 4th! Viva Las Hoco!

SUHS is hosting a blood drive on February 10th. If you are over the age of 16 and interested please sign up. There is more information in the front office or Mrs. Ernst's room, B22.

The Sutter High School Drama Club is currently casting for their spring play, "Murder's in the Heir." This interactive murder-mystery comedy promises to be a crowd-pleaser. At each performance, the audience will choose who the murderer is and how the show ends. Auditions will be held in the PAC this Wednesday and Thursday at lunch, after school, or by special arrangement. If you are interested in auditioning, please contact Mr. Tuttle or a Drama Club officer.

DAILY BULLETIN
TUESDAY
FEBRUARY 3 2026

Attention all teachers and students, Sutter Wrestling is hosting the GEL league championship this Thursday February 5th at 12pm in the south gym. Our wrestlers would greatly appreciate any and all support! Please bring your classes to come enjoy some intense and fun wrestling matches. We hope to see you there.

The Drama Club will be selling fresh-baked chocolate chip and snickerdoodle cookies today at lunch in the quad.

Congratulations to Alexandria Montna, who has been recognized for her writing in the regional Scholastic Art & Writing Competition. Her speculative fiction piece "Crimson Tears" garnered a Gold Key designation, which means it now advances to the national competition. Alexandria and her work will be recognized at the Scholastic Writing Awards ceremony at 2 pm Saturday, February 21st at the Sutter Theater Center for the Arts on Plumas Street in Yuba City.