Cross Country	REGL
Cross Country is under way! The team of fourteen kids and their coach, Mrs. Matchniff, had their first meet on September 27. Richmond's home cross country meet will be Thursday October 3rd. TK through fourth grade race at 3:30 in the afternoon and fifth through eighth grade race at 4:00 in the afternoon. Good luck Rebel Runners!	Six kids from leadership were chosen to go to an eighth grade leadership camp called REGL. According to the students, the activities that they attended helped them get out of their comfort zone to meet new people. Some of these activities included a ropes course that created trust within their teams and a game that tried to get them to influence others in a good way. Another activity that helped them trust others and get out of their comfort zone was an activity where each leadership student meets a new person when they rotate in the circle; you get to tell this new person something about yourself and move on from there. On one of the three days these students had to do an activity called "Cross the Line." In this activity, you could choose to answer yes, no, or I choose not to answer, while still being silent. To play, the director, Rochelle, asked a question, and you went to the middle of the room to say yes or stay where you were to say no or I chose not to answer. Some questions asked were personal and out of most people's comfort zone but almost all the questions were still answered. Some questions varied from what sports you play to what the biggest impact was on your life and how it changed your experience. These experiences changed how these students looked at each other. We were taught to think of things as we get to do them, not we have to do them because some kids don't get to go to school while others complain about it by saying "have to." These students were taught courage and how to encourage others. The students from Richmond say it was so fun that they wish they could go back.

We left at 7:45 for Burney Falls. At 9:00 we got to Burney Falls. We met the ranger. The trails were closed, so we could only look over the overlook of the water fall. Then we left for Medicine Lake. We saw Medicine Lake. There was a beautiful view. Next, we left for Glass Mountain. When we got there we saw a huge piece of obsidian. We ate there. Then we left for Lava Beds. We got to the visitor center. When we were ready we went to Mushpot and Indian Well Caves. When we were done we did some of the Cave Loop. Afterwards, we went to the campsite. We set up camp. We ate dinner and had s'mores. The next day we went to Symbol Bridge. We saw petroglyphs. Then we went to Skull Cave. There was ice and skulls there. Next we went to Captain Jack's Stronghold. We saw where the Indians hid behind rocks in the Modoc War (1872 - 1873). Then we started to drive home. The trip was amazing!
  <h3>2nd Grade Class Project</h3>  The 2nd graders loved their class project. They told us that they put eggs in a cup of white vinegar. They waited a week, and then took them out. Apparently, one fell and broke in the classroom. The 2nd graders observed that the egg shells peeled off due to the bubbles created by the vinegar. They also observed that the biggest eggs were the bounciest. Apparently, the project didn't smell good. Despite the smell, the 2nd graders loved the experiment.	  <h3>Class Pet</h3> In the TK classroom, they have an amazing pet frog named Trista. Trista is a greenish-brown colored frog who has a habit of ribbiting and hopping around her enclosure. Trista loves eating crickets and hiding under her rock to sleep. One of the things TK loves doing with Trista is playing with her and watching her explore her enclosure. The TK class has had Trista since the first day of school and she makes an interesting class pet.
