GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Seniors who are interested in applying to a UC, please attend the UC application workshop hosted by an admissions rep from UC Santa Cruz. Learn the tips and tricks on submitting a great application with essays that will make you stand out!

The workshop is today in room 101 at 2:30pm. Please sign up in the counseling office if you plan to attend!

2. The Crochet Club will be meeting on Wednesday at lunch in the library. This club is for anyone who already crochets or wants to learn how. It is also open to students who want to learn to macrame or knit. No supplies needed everything will be provided. Hope to see you there.

3. There will be a CSU/UC Application Launch on Friday during 6th period in Room 101. Seniors who plan to apply to either a UC or CSU should attend this workshop to learn about a huge shortcut in completing your application! See your counselors if you have any questions.

4. Attention students! Are you a low income or first-generation student who dreams of going to college? Do you want help with financial aid and scholarships? Do you want to go on free college trips and to earn a paycheck while improving your grades? Upward Bound is recruiting for Freshman and Sophomores who are interested in joining the program. Come by the quad area by the cafeteria during break or lunch time on September 1st to see what Upward Bound is all about.
