GET READY FOR THE BIG READ!

2025 – 2026 BIG READ SUMMER READING

All Woodside High School students will read one of the following books over the summer:

- Firekeeper's Daughter by Angeline Boulley
- The Woman in the Woods and other North American Stories

Books will be available via library check-out.

Identity & Heritage

How does our cultural background influence who we are?

Our cultural background can influence who we are and how we understand ourselves. In Firekeeper's Daughter, Daunis Fontaine struggles with reconciling her Ojibwe heritage with her non-native heritage and the expectations of the non-Native community surrounding her. Her journey toward embracing both sides of her cultural background highlights how culture is not only inherited but also chosen.

Likewise, The Woman in the Woods and Other North American Stories, a graphic anthology of Indigenous tales, highlights how traditional stories preserve identity, values, and ancestral wisdom across generations. Together, these works show that identity is deeply rooted in the cultures we come from.
