1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

Coronado USD (CUSD) is proud of its robust arts education programs which include opportunities for students to explore a wide range of arts education programs which support their unique interests. Arts education has long been a priority within CUSD as we strive to enrich students' artistic experiences, foster creative expression, and provide a well-rounded education. Elementary School - The elementary school programs provide a strong foundation in arts education, preparing students for further arts study in middle school: - Choral and Instrumental Music: The program includes both choral and instrumental music, fostering early musical skills and appreciation. - Visual and Performing Arts: Expanded offerings now encompass visual art, multimedia arts, and dance/drama, providing a diverse range of artistic experiences. - Supplemental Equipment and Supplies: Various materials and supplies were purchased to enrich student arts experiences. Middle School - To create a comprehensive arts program, our middle school provides a variety of fine and performing arts in addition to digital media and film. - Visual and Performing Arts: Expanded offerings now encompass visual art, multimedia arts, and dance/drama, providing a diverse range of artistic experiences. - Digital Media/Film: Programming includes Digital Photography, Graphic Design, Video Film, and Digital Art classes, providing students with diverse and modern artistic opportunities. High School - Our high school arts education program focused on providing opportunities and resources for students to engage in visual and performing arts: - Visual and Performing Arts: Offerings encompass visual art, multimedia arts, and dance/drama, providing a diverse range of artistic experiences. - Band and Instrumental Music - Coronado School of the Arts: With a curriculum designed by professional artist/educators, students are immersed in their chosen specialty in one of six conservatories: Classical and Contemporary Dance, Digital Arts (Filmmaking and Graphic Design), Instrumental Music, Musical Theatre & Drama, Theatre Production, Design & Management and Visual Art. CoSA is a State of California-approved Career Technical Education program.
