Behind the Badge: Getting to Know Our New SRO

There's a new face around our OUSD campuses, and while you may see him wearing a badge, Officer Jose Flores hopes students and families will quickly get to know the person behind it.

As our new School Resource Officer (SRO), Officer Flores is looking forward to building relationships and "bridging the gap between the school community and law enforcement." One of his biggest goals is to strengthen relationships between students and law enforcement while helping shed a positive light on what those relationships can look like.

And what does he want our students and families to know about him?
"I'm human and approachable."

When asked how his friends and family would describe him in three words, Officer Flores said: determined, humorous, and kind-hearted. He also enjoys working with young people because he knows he has an opportunity to make a difference.

In fact, if he weren't a police officer, Officer Flores says he might have pursued a career as a school psychologist. Another profession centered around supporting young people and helping them succeed.

When he's not wearing the badge, you can usually find Officer Flores spending time with his family or enjoying the outdoors. His hobbies include fishing, soccer, hunting, and exploring the great outdoors. He's also a big soccer fan, with Chivas de Guadalajara as his favorite team.

His entertainment and music choices are just as varied. His playlist can include rock, heavy metal, old-school rap, and country, while his favorite movies and shows tend to involve two things: comedy and Star Wars.

And if you ever find yourself talking food with Officer Flores, there's one clear favorite: pozole. Mexican and Chinese food top his list.

When asked what is one thing that may surprise people, Officer Flores said he describes himself as a very spiritual person.

As he begins his new role in OUSD, Officer Flores has a simple message for our students:

“Be kind to yourself and others. It goes a long way. It will help so you don’t end up in the middle of problems that don't belong to you.”

Welcome to OUSD, Officer Flores! We’re glad to have you as part of our school community.
