Students, we will be conducting a tardy sweep this week. If you hear the following sound, you are to get to class immediately. If you are caught in the tardy sweep, you will be assigned a lunch detention.

Juniors and seniors, we will be administering the ASVAB test today in the Library. If you signed up, please report to Library.

There will be a Girls Soccer meeting in Room M-2 tomorrow at lunch. Come learn about the upcoming season, meet your teammates, and enjoy some pizza.

Cal State Eastbay will be on campus tomorrow to talk about their school during 6th period in the Library. If you are interested in coming to this presentation, visit your grade level Google Classroom and sign up on the Google Form

Also, UC Davis will be on campus next Monday October 27 at during 3rd period in the Library. If you are interested in coming to this presentation go to your grade level google classroom and sign up on the google form.

If you have any questions about either presentation, please see Mr. Easter in the College & Center in the Library.

Hey Indians, would you like to help save a life? Our first Blood Drive is happening Thursday November 6th. Your donation could help save lives in our very own community. Donating blood is quick, safe and incredibly impactful. One donation can help up to three people in need. Sign-ups will be open at lunch next Monday and Tuesday. Stop by the table to learn more and to reserve your spot. Roll up your sleeve help save a life.

According to the calendar, Halloween is next week so get ready for some Halloween fun! All students are invited to the Lunchtime Trick-or-Treat event next Thursday. Costumes are encouraged but not required. Stop by the check-in table next Thursday at lunch to grab a map of trick-or-treat stops around campus and a treat bag!

Speaking of Halloween, students and staff are allowed and encouraged to dress up. All school dress code rules apply with some additional rules. No masks of any kind are allowed either partial or full. No elaborate makeup is allowed. No weapons of any kind are allowed either real or imitation. Your costume must have straps and be sufficient to cover your body both front and back. Your costume cannot be offensive in any way and cannot promote or depict drug, alcohol, or tobacco use. Your costume cannot impede your ability to sit in a desk or to function safely. It also cannot impede the learning of others. Make sure to bring an extra clothes in the event your costume is deemed inappropriate.

The Yuba College Spring course catalog is now available to view on the Yuba College website. If you are interested in taking a college course, the spring application is now available. Please make an appointment with your assigned counselor to learn more about the enrollment process. The first day to submit a High School Non-CCAP Enrollment Request form to Yuba College Admissions for the Spring semester is November 10th, and December 1st is the first day you can register for spring courses.
