

Homecoming Recap!

Gridley High's homecoming festivities wrapped up last weekend with a spectacular game and dance. It was a busy week of float building, follies, and football. Each class showed their spirit throughout the week with the dress-up days, but ultimately the seniors came out on top, winning the 10-minute early release for lunch. However, the junior girls enjoyed a dominating victory during Thursday's football follies game, winning 32-0.

The rally on Friday brought the entire school together in the gym for what many called the loudest and most energetic assembly of the year. Band kicked things off with upbeat music and the classic fight song at the start of the rally. Class cheers then echoed off the walls as each grade competed for class points. The junior class follies cheer team won a decisive victory during the rally, but the sophomores dominated the inflatables. Competitive spirits ran high, making the rally fun to watch and be a part of.

Friday night's homecoming game saw the Bulldogs defeat Paradise, and the halftime ceremony crowned our homecoming king and queen. Congratulations to Aubrey Quist and Eli Punzo on being crowned the 2025 Homecoming Queen and King. The sophomore float was voted the best float, while the junior float came in second, the seniors in third, and the freshmen in fourth.

Saturday's homecoming dance at the gym brought the week to a glamorous close. The theme "A Night in Paris" featured twinkling lights, mini Eiffel towers, and a photo booth that saw non-stop traffic throughout the night. Over 330 students were in attendance - a new record for Homecoming attendance! As students returned to their normal routines this week, the memories of homecoming 2025 will undoubtedly fuel school spirit for months to come.

 Fall Sports Update

We had so much fun during the Homecoming football game against Paradise. Varsity pulled off a nail-biting victory, winning 7-3, while JV won 41-0! No team has scored against JV this season, making each of their victories a blowout! Tomorrow we have another home game against Willows. The theme is Pink Out, so make sure to show up wearing pink as a message of hope and awareness in the fight against breast cancer.

Flag football had a great game on Monday, winning in overtime with a game winning catch. A great throw by quarterback Delanie Cloyd to Kaydenze Pruitt. Fans stormed the field to celebrate the exciting win! The girls also won 18-6 in their game yesterday against Center.

Volleyball Varsity is second in league with a 2-1 record. Sophomore, Iris Counihan leads the team in kills, hitting percentage, and digs. Sophomores Kambelle Tolman leads in blocks and Madi Carey leads in aces. The girls play again at home next Tuesday with a pink out theme for the Dawg Squad.

The girls and boys swim teams both placed 2nd in the swim meet last week in Paradise. They are heading to Anderson tomorrow for the Nor-Cal invitational. Good luck!

Cross Country hosted our only home meet last Wednesday and Valentin placed second in the race.

Junior, Bella Gutierrez, won her last tennis match in overtime against Oroville.
