Event Details:

The Classified School Employee of the Year (CSEY) Program honors the critical work of school professionals who support schools and students in grades PreK–12. These individuals contribute to safe, healthy, and effective school environments and play an essential role in student success.

Since 1978, Solano County Office of Education has annually recognized a Solano County Teacher of the Year—an educator who exemplifies excellence in teaching and reflects the diversity and dedication of local educators.

Media RSVP & Interviews:

Media interested in attending, scheduling interviews, or capturing b-roll are asked to RSVP by contacting Jennifer Leonard at (707) 399-4429 or emailing PIO@solanocoe.net.

###

Solano County Office of Education (SCOE) provides leadership, support, and fiscal oversight for charter schools and Benicia, Dixon, Fairfield-Suisun, Travis, Vacaville, and Vallejo school districts which serve approximately 60,000 students. Solano County Superintendent of Schools, Lisette Estrella-Henderson is elected by voters of Solano County. The Superintendent is a state constitutional officer who serves as the chief executive officer of SCOE and as a liaison between local school districts and the state.
