"Winter sport athletes competing in playoffs are encouraged to inform Coach Jaime or Bonnifet your intention to come out right after the playoffs conclude..."It's A great day to be a Bulldog!"*

Interested in joining a trade union after high school? Union Apprenticeship Construction Trades Day is April 21st in Marysville. 12 different trade unions set up their booths like a job fair and give kids some hands-on experience and work towards their futures. If you are interested please sign up in the main office and grab a permission slip.

Wilson and Manzanita schools are looking for some amazing role models to join as cabin leaders for their Shady Creek trip that will be coming here soon. This is such an amazing experience for you to be able to be a positive role model to many 5th grade students. The dates are Tuesday, May 5th - May 8th. Please fill out a cabin leader application. Applications are available in the GHS office. Please return your application to the counseling office by Friday, February 27th.
