Classroom Updates:

Read Aloud: Our class is just finishing The Ickabog by J.K. Rowling as our read aloud. Next up will be The Christmas Pig, also by J.K. Rowling.

Math: Douglas City School is piloting new math programs across all of its grade levels this year. As such, the students and I are seeing this new curriculum for the first time and working our way through the kinks. I appreciate theirs and your patience throughout this process. We are finishing up our 5th unit in the textbook which focuses on multiplying decimals. Rest assured, your student is getting a solid math education.

Donations: Thank you for donating class snacks throughout the year. Our class greatly appreciates your generosity!
