GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. There will be a SWAT meeting this coming Friday after school in Room 202. Any new members are welcome to join.
2. Friday Night Live is a youth leadership program that provides fun, safe, and alcohol and drug free activities that grow and build new skills. Be a leader at your school and in your community! Join Friday Night Live by going to our first meeting of the year on September 4th at lunch in Room 302, food is provided!
3. Attention students, if you would like to join FCCLA again this year, pick up an affiliation form and turn it in by Friday to Mrs. Poldervaart. Thank you
4. Makeup picture day is September 2nd at 12:00 p.m. in Room 101. You will need to check in with the library before you have your picture taken. This will be the only makeup day, so all students and staff who have not had their picture taken should attend.

5. Students if you decide to leave your textbooks or Chromebooks in a teacher's classroom and they end up damaged or missing, you are still responsible for the replacement cost.
6. Attention Key Clubbers: We are having an art contest to our new t-shirts! Check out our Google Classroom for the rules; all entries are due next Tuesday by 11:00. Both digital and paper submissions accepted. If you missed our meeting and would like to join, come to room 204 to sign up, tell us your t-shirt size and get our Google Classroom code.
7. Interested in starting a club to support our LGBTQ+ community? Let's meet this Friday at lunch in Spooner's room 204, to discuss the first steps. Everyone is welcome!
