Hello Northwood Families,

Tomorrow, 8/28, is our first spirit day of the year: stuffed animal day! Students can bring a stuffed animal to school, and it needs to be small enough to fit into a backpack. We will be having monthly spirit days, as well as our school pride days (school colors).

Tomorrow will also be our first Flag Assembly. At the start of school, classes will sit under the solar panels, using this seating chart. The assemblies usually last for about 15 minutes, and parents are welcome to stay to hear school-wide announcements. Parents should stand on the outside of the classes (not with their student or class).

Yours respectfully,

Eric Witter, principal
