SPSA Modified Actions and/or Expenditures to Goal 3

Goal Statement
A positive school climate will enhance student achievement by providing a foundation of support through school attendance, cutting down the amount of chronically absent students and number of student who receive suspensions for poor behavior. Students at Frontier Elementary school will receive support through the use of school-wide Tier 1 and Tier 2 PBIS implementation, CHAMPS use in classrooms, Restorative Practice and counseling services which will lead to an increase in student engagement as evidenced by a reduction in chronic attendance, office referrals and a suspension rate at or below the state average. Staff will also provide structured recess support, social emotional learning support through classroom presentations and through work with small groups.
