February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month and Gridley High School is partnering with Catalyst Domestic Violence Services to help spread that awareness to our students. Catalyst's fact of the day is Healthy relationships aren't always easy, but they are always safe. When you're in a relationship with someone, you should be able to express your feelings and thoughts without fear of being made fun of. You should feel safe telling the person you're seeing that you need space or want to spend time with friends or family.
