Paying for College

There are different types of financial aid to help pay for college expenses.
You may become eligible for these resources by submitting a Financial Aid application.

Grants

Grant funds DON'T have to be repaid, as long as you meet the requirements.

Scholarships

Scholarships are typically awarded based on your accomplishments and DON'T have to be repaid, as long as you meet the requirements. Schools, companies, and other organizations award scholarships.

Work-Study (student jobs)

Work-study programs offer career-related work experience, allowing you to earn money while working throughout the school year.

Student Loans

Student loans MUST be repaid. There are various types of student loans. Be sure not to borrow more than you need and borrow wisely.

Applying for Financial Aid

There are two different financial aid applications:

FAFSA

Free Application for Federal Student Aid

studentaid.gov

Available to U.S. citizens and eligible non-citizens

TASFA

Texas Application for State Financial Aid

mytexasfuture.org

Available only to students who applied for and received DACA status

Submit a financial aid application to be considered for:

- Grants
- Scholarships
- Work-Study
- Student Loans
