

THE DAILY DAWG

Westside League Champions

We want to congratulate our Gridley Golf team on winning league for the first time in Gridley history!

Jeff Taranto was named League MVP while Bernardo Rodarte and David Taranto were named All League. and Cooper Bunn and Ethan Hoogeveen received Honorable Mentions. Each of these golfers, along with Dane Becker, qualified to advance to Sections. Good luck to our advancing golfers, and congratulations to the team on their historic victory!

Prom

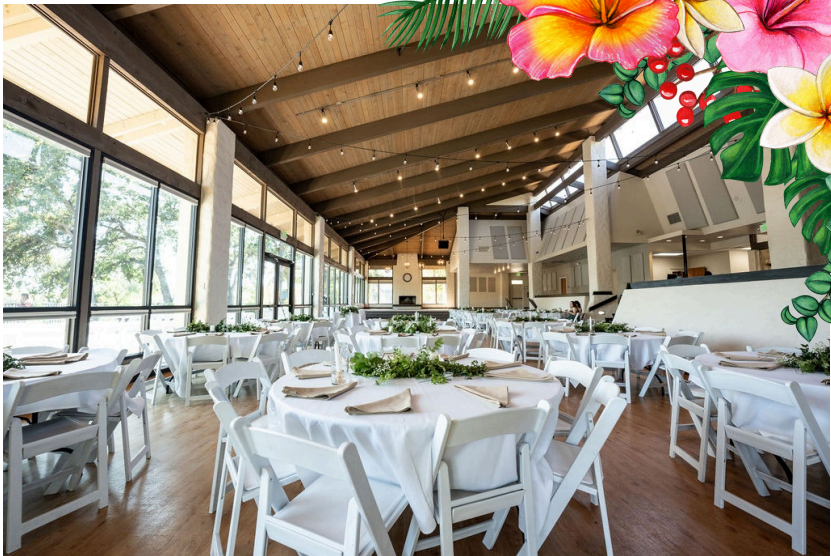

Prom is TOMORROW!! Tickets are on sale at lunch and they will also be available at the door for $50 - CASH ONLY.

Congratulations to Eve Sherer on winning the free prom ticket from our Instagram promposal drawing! Caden asked Eve to prom at Pismo Beach with a beautiful setup - congratulations again!

The prom venue, Lakeside Pavilion in Chico, has plenty of parking and lots of places to take amazing photos with your friends. Be sure to check out the back patio for views of the lake. If you're looking for a break from dancing, pop outside to enjoy some of our outdoor games like cornhole, giant Guess Who, and giant Jenga.

If you haven't done it yet, consider making reservations for dinner to avoid long wait times. Some popular dinner spots include: Pour House, 5th Street Steakhouse, Chilis, Rawbar, Big Tuna Sushi, and Alibi Pub and Grill.

Teacher and Classified Employee of the Year

Congratulations to Ms. Gomes on being selected Teacher of the Year!

Ms. Gomes is the Speech and Language Pathologist for Gridley High School and McKinley, and while she serves many students, it is her work with our Extensive Needs population that truly defines her impact. Ms. Gomes doesn't just teach; she changes the entire trajectory of a family's life.

Additionally, congratulations to Lourdes Delgado on being named the Classified Employee of the year!

Through this award, we have the opportunity to recognize the impact she has on every corner of this campus. On top of her administrative duties, she is a daily, steady force for students, parents, staff, and admin. She keeps the entire campus running smoothly, we love you Ms. Delgado!
