NEISD Board of Trustees Names Interim Superintendent

The North East ISD Board of Trustees voted Monday night to name Chief Instructional Officer Anthony Jarrett interim superintendent after formally accepting the resignation of Superintendent of Schools Sean Maika.

Maika's last workday with NEISD will be Jan. 12, but his resignation does not officially take effect until March 31. Jarrett will remain in his current position until Jan. 13.

"Mr. Jarrett and I have worked closely over the past six years. I have no doubt our District is being left in good hands with him at the helm," Maika said.

Jarrett brings more than 25 years of experience in public education to the interim superintendent role, including six years with our District.

"I'm thrilled to build on the great work we've been doing and to explore new learning opportunities for all our students," Jarrett said. "I'm eager to collaborate with our amazing staff and families to ensure we provide the best education possible."
