Welcome back Bulldogs!

Today is the schoolwide rock, paper, scissors game! Students can play against one another and against teachers. If you lose, you have to hand over all your beads. The person at the end of the day with the most beads will earn a free ASB sticker! Go to room 204 at the end of the day to see if you're the winner and claim your prize. Good luck and have fun but please remember, no playing during class.

Start the year off right by buying your ASB sticker in the hallway at lunch. ASB stickers are $50 and they get you into all home volleyball, basketball, and football games for free. They also get you discounted tickets for dances. They pay for themselves after a few games! Be sure to get yours before the home volleyball game on Thursday!

In the new science quad there are ping pong and cornhole games. If you want to use them please see Rasma in the library for the paddles and bean bags.

This Thursday leadership is hosting a FREE BBQ lunch outside the new science classrooms. Everyone is invited to get free burgers, listen to music, and play games with friends!

Our first home volleyball game is this Thursday and we want the Dawg Squad packed! Everyone is going to the game and after, we're all coming back to campus to play a schoolwide game of hide and seek! Come hang out with friends and play for a chance to win some cool prizes. See you all there!
