Public Hearing to discuss K-8, State Instructional Material Program and the Sufficiency of Instructional Material – Open session at 5:38pm Mr. Zuber teacher of 5th and 6th grade stated he is still missing some books. Savas Science books were received today. Mr. Jones asked do all students have on-line access. Mr. Zuber reported no not at this time. Mr. Jones also asked Mr. Zuber if he had Spanish resources. Mr. Zuber responded I have placed my order. Mr. Meyer stated he has ordered every book and Ms. Allison went into each classroom to check the inventory. Mr. Meyer ordered English and History in July. Our orders have been on backorder. Mr. Zuber stated that Teacher's online access were not ordered. Mr. Meyer stated the sales representative did not explain that clearly to him when ordering. Meridian Elementary School is being audited by the County on September 25th. Closed session at 5:50pm.

7. Superintendent Report: Chris Meyer

Mr. Meyer highlighted on the Revenues and the Expenditures from the Unaudited Actuals. Also today was our 9/11 ceremony which was attended by the VFW, Yuba County Police and Bi-County Ambulance. Not as many students asked questions compared to last year. Mr. Zuber thanked Allison Hernandez for organizing the event. In addition, stated our students took it upon themselves to shake hands with all the presenters. ASB is thinking of hosting a First Responder Day. Mr. Meyer reported a smaller turn out for the Donuts for Father Figures and thanked the Parents Club for hosting. Mr. Meyer asked Mr. Long how he thought Back to School night went and Mr. Long said well but the projector in the cafeteria makes it hard to see the slides. Mr. Meyer also reported that the license plate for the new school van have arrived.

8. Public Comments:

Mr. Zuber stated ASB would like to raise money to purchase a gaga ball pit. The cost is around $1,300.00, which would hold up to 30 students at one time. Mr. Jones asked if it is a permanent structure. Mr. Zuber responded that you could purchase a permanent one or a portable one that has a rubber mat bottom or put it in the grass area. Mrs. Zuber stated that our current playground is in bad shape with limited items for the students to play on/with. In addition, the slide is broken, the basketball area has wasp. Mr. Meyer stated this is the first time hearing of ASB wanting to purchase the gaga ball pit. Mr. Zuber interjected that he brought up the ideal after Shady Creek and then again after Yeti (Shady Creek staff member) visited the classroom. Mr. Meyer asked Mr. Zuber to come see him sometime afterschool to go over cost, dimensions, etc.
