6. Superintendent Report:

Room 2 & 5's A/C units need to be replaced.

We have received one bid from Burgers Heating and Air with two bids still needed before moving forward.

- Mrs. Tresler recommended Carvalho's Heating & Air.
- Mrs. Davis recommended Fire & Ice.
- Mrs. Tresler will contact Carvalho's Heating & Air and Fire & Ice to request formal bids for the project, ensuring that all necessary proposals are received before proceeding with a final selection.

7. Public Comment:

1. During public comment Mrs. Yelena Storojenko stood from her seat and expressed her concerns regarding her son's ELD education at Meridian Elementary. She also expressed concerns about the disciplinary actions taken during the school year, stating that she believed her son's language barrier was not sufficiently considered when disciplinary decisions were made. Ms. Storojenko referenced email correspondence between herself and Mr. Meyer to support her concerns. She offered copies of the correspondence to the Board President for review and the board declined.
2. During public comment, Board Clerk Jones acknowledged an unfamiliar attendee at the meeting. When the attendee declined to introduce themselves, citing their personal right to remain anonymous, the Board respected their rights.
