Approved March 14, 2023

ARTICLE I

Duties of the School Site Council:

The School Site Council, hereinafter referred to as the council, shall carry out the following duties:

- Obtain recommendations for, and review of, the proposed Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) from all school advisory committees.
- Participate in regular training on SSC roles and responsibilities.
- Develop and approve the SPSA and related categorical expenditures in accordance with all state and federal law and district regulations.
- Recommend the SPSA and categorical expenditures to the TRUSD Board of Education for approval.
- Provide ongoing review of the implementation of the SPSA with the principal, teachers, and other school staff members.
- Make modifications to the SPSA whenever the need arises.
- Submit the modified SPSA for district approval whenever a material change (as defined in district governing board policy) is made in planned activities for related categorical expenditures.
- Regularly evaluate academic data to determine the progress made toward school goals to raise the academic achievement of all students.
- Carry out all other duties assigned to the council by the TRUSD Board of Education and by state law.

Regency Park Elementary School Site Council Bylaws

ARTICLE II

Members

Section A: Composition*

The council shall be composed of at least 10 members, selected by their peers, as follows:

- ✓ Principal/Designee
- ✓ Classroom teachers
- ✓ “Other” school staff members (non classroom teaching staff)
- ✓ Parents or community members
- ✓ Students (secondary)

The school principal/designee is a required member of the council. The principal/designee shall attend all SSC meetings. Council members chosen to represent parents may be employees of the school district so long as they are not employed at this school. Classroom teachers selected shall constitute a majority of the school members selected. The number of parent and/or community members selected shall equal the number of school members selected.

Section B: Term of Office

Council members shall be elected for 2 year terms. Half, or the nearest approximation thereof, of each representative group shall be elected during odd years, and the remaining number of elected members during even years. At the first regular meeting of the council, each member's current term of office shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Section C: Voting Rights

Each member of the council is entitled to one vote and may cast that vote on any matter submitted to a vote of the council. Absentee (proxy) and any electronic votes/ballots shall be permitted.

Section D: Termination of Membership

The council may, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of all its members, suspend or expel a member. Any elected member may terminate his or her membership by submitting a written letter of resignation to the council chairperson. A vacancy shall exist if a member has missed three consecutive without prior notification to the chairperson or the school principal.

Regency Park Elementary School Site Council Bylaws

Section E: Transfer of Membership

Membership on the council may not be assigned or transferred.

Section F: Vacancy

Any vacancy on the council occurring during the term of duly elected member shall be filled by:

- An alternate designated during the annual election
- Nominated by current SSC and approved by majority of SSC membership.
- The term will be for the remaining time left in the vacated seat.

ARTICLE III

Elections of Council Members

- The school principal/designee is a standing member of the council.
- Classroom teacher elections will be held in August/September or as soon as permissible:
 - Nominations and elections are conducted by the certificated staff. If the form is digital, a member of that voting party will be a collaborator on the digital form and will assist in the verification of nominations and election results.
 - A ballot will be used that includes a write in option.
- “Other” staff elections will be held in August/September or as soon as permissible.
 - The “other” position is filled by a non-classroom teacher. He/she may be a classified or certificated staff member.
 - Nominations and elections will be conducted by the non classroom teaching classified and certificated staff. If the form is digital, a member of that voting party will be a collaborator on the digital form and will assist in the verification of nominations and election results.
 - A ballot will be used that includes a write in option.
- Parent/Community Member representative elections will be conducted in September or as soon as permissible.
 - Nominations and elections will be conducted by the school office staff.

Regency Park Elementary School Site Council Bylaws

- Nominations will be accepted through the first week of September or as soon as permissible.
- Announcement of the nominations will be provided in August/September through digital school communication and website.
- Nominations will be accepted through mid September.
- A ballot will be used with a write in option.
- If the form is digital, a member of the office staff will be a collaborator on the digital form and will assist in the verification of nominations and election results.

All election ballots and result records will be maintained at the school site for a period of three (3) years.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section A: Officers

The officers of the council shall be a chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, and other officers the council deems desirable.

The chairperson shall:

- Collaborate with the principal in developing agendas
- Preside at meetings of the council.
- Sign all letters, reports, and other communications of the council.
- Have other such duties as are prescribed by the council.

The vice-chairperson shall:

- Assist the chairperson in assigned duties.
- Substitute for the chairperson in his/her absence.

The secretary shall:

- Keep minutes and sign ins of all meetings of the council.

Regency Park Elementary School Site Council Bylaws

- Keep a register of names, email addresses and telephone numbers of each member of the council.
- Transmit true and correct copies of the minutes of such meetings to members of the council.
- Perform other such duties as are assigned by the chairperson or the council.

Section B: Election and Terms of Office

The officers shall be elected annually, at the first or second meeting of the council, and shall serve for one year, or until each successor has been elected.

Section C: Reasons for Removal of Officers

Any officer may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of all the members.

Section D: Vacancy

A vacancy in any office shall be filled at the earliest opportunity by a special election of the council for the remaining portion of the term of office or by placement of a properly elected alternate during the Fall election.

ARTICLE V

Committees

Section A: Sub-committees

The council may establish and abolish sub-committees of their own membership to perform duties as prescribed by the council. At least one member representing teachers and one member representing parents shall make up the sub-committee. No sub-committee may exercise the authority of the council.

Section B: Terms of Office

The council shall determine the terms of office for members of a committee.

Section C: Rules

Each committee may adopt rules for its own government not inconsistent with these bylaws or rules adopted by the council, or policies of the district governing board.

Section D: Quorum

A majority (51% or greater) of the members of the committee shall constitute a quorum. The act of a majority of the members present shall be the act of the committee, provided a quorum is present. Members may attend via technology/phone/etc.

Regency Park Elementary School Site Council Bylaws

ARTICLE VI

Meetings of the Council

Section A: Meetings

The council shall meet according to the schedule to fulfill SSC requirements (at least 4 times per school year). Special meetings of the council may be called by the chairperson or the principal.

Section B: Place of Meetings

The council shall hold its regular meetings at a facility provided by the school, unless such a facility that is accessible to the public, including handicapped persons, is unavailable. Alternate meeting places may be determined by the chairperson or by majority vote of the council.

Section C: Notice of Meetings

1. Written public notice (agenda) of all meetings shall be posted at appropriate place accessible to the public, at least 72 hours in advance of the meeting.
2. Changes in the established date, time, or location shall be given special notice.
3. All meetings shall be publicized in the following venues:
The school office, the District Webpage, and through digital school communication
4. All required notices shall be delivered to council and committee members no less than 72 hours of the meeting, personally, or by mail/ or via e-mail.

Section D: Quorum

The act of the majority of the members present shall be the act of the council, provided a quorum is in attendance, and no decision may otherwise be attributed to the council. A majority of the members of the council (51% or greater) shall constitute a quorum. No actions may be taken unless a quorum has been established. Members may attend via technology/phone/etc. A 15 minute window of wait time will be allotted to establish a quorum.

Section E: Conduct of Meetings

Meetings of the council shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of order established by California Education Code Section 35147 © and with Robert's Rules of Order or adoption thereof approved by the council.

Section F: Meetings Open to the Public

All meetings of the council, and of committees established by the council, shall be open to the public. Notice of such meetings shall be provided in accordance with Section C of this article.

Regency Park Elementary School Site Council Bylaws
ARTICLE VII

Amendments

An amendment of these Bylaws may be made at any regular meeting of the council by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present. Written notice of the proposed amendment must be submitted to council members at least 72 hours prior to the meeting at which the amendment is to be considered for adoption.

TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY Regency Park Elementary School 2024-2025

Regency Park has developed a written Title I parental involvement policy with input from Title I parents. This policy was developed with parent and staff. It was distributed to parents in AERIES Communicator. The policy describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements [20 USC 6318 Section 1118(a)-(f) inclusive].

INVOLVEMENT OF PARENTS IN THE TITLE I PROGRAM:

To involve parents in the Title I program at Regency Park, the following practices have been established:

The school convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title I students about Title I requirements and about the right of parents to be involved in the Title I program.

The parents at Regency Park Elementary are informed about the school's Title I requirements and the right to be involved in the Title I program at our annual Back-to-School Night, which is held within the first weeks of school. After the classroom teachers and school staff are introduced at Back-to-School Night, the principal reviews the rights and requirements via a PowerPoint presentation presented virtually on Zoom.

The school offers a flexible number of meetings for Title I parents, such as meetings in the morning or evening.

Flexible parent meetings are offered during Conversations with the Principal. Some Title I parents are a part of School Site Council, Parent Teacher Association (PTA) and English Learner Advisory Committee. Parents provide input about the most convenient meeting times for them, and scheduling takes place to meet their needs.

The school involves parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's Title I programs and the Title I parental involvement policy.

Information is gathered at parent input meetings regarding the needs of the Title I students. Parents are an integral part of the development of the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA). The SSC and ELAC conduct formal needs assessments during each school year, and these are used to develop the goals and strategies included in the SPSA.

The school provides parents of Title I students with timely information about Title I programs.

Parents are informed about information regarding Title I programs at meetings, Family Nights, and written correspondence sent home with Weekly School Newsletters sent through AERIES communicator.

The school provides parents of Title I students with an explanation of the curriculum used at the school, the assessments used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.

Parents are informed about curriculum, assessments, and student progress and proficiency at Back-to-School Nights, Mid-Trimester Progress Reports, Wednesday Folders, Parent Conferences, Report Cards, and Open House. Student Study Team and IEP Meetings are also held for at-risk and special needs students.

If requested by parents of Title I students, the school provides opportunities for regular meetings that allow the parents to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.

Parents can contribute to decisions related to the education of their child at parent-teacher conference meetings with the Principal, Vice Principal, Student Study Team, and or meetings with the Academic and Behavior Intervention Assistant, when possible.

BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT:

Regency Park Elementary engages Title I parents in meaningful interactions with the school. It supports a partnership among staff, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement. To help reach these goals, the school has established the following practices:

The school provides Title I parents with assistance in understanding the State's academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children.

The state academic content standards and assessments are explained to parents by the classroom teacher at Back-to-School Night and Parent Conferences and at Academic Family Nights- such as Family Tech Night Family Literacy Night. Parents are provided with assistance in how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children with assistance from the classroom teacher. Teachers provide ongoing student assessment and achievement information to parents in AERIES Communicator, Google Classroom, via Mid-Trimester Progress Reports and Report Cards. The monitoring and improvement of student achievement is also discussed in Student

Study Team meetings, IEP meetings and Professional Learning Community bi-weekly collaboration meetings

The school provides Title I parents with materials and training to help them work with their children to improve their children's achievement.

Title I parents are provided with training and materials to work with their students at Back-to-School Nights, Parent Forums, as well as Parent Teacher Conferences, Student Study Team meetings and informal parent meetings with the teacher.

With the assistance of Title I parents, the school educates staff members about the value of parent contributions, and in how to work with parents as equal partners.

Parent Involvement is a primary focus at Regency Park. It is a primary goal of the staff and classroom teachers to engage and involve parents in their child's education. Parents are encouraged by the principal and the staff to volunteer. Parents are informed that they are an integral part of their child's education.

The school coordinates and integrates the Title I parental involvement program with other programs, and conducts other activities, such as parent resource centers, to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children.

Parents of Title I students are some of the same parents that are part of School Site Council, Parent Teacher Association and English Language Advisory Committee. Most of the school activities, events, resources and support are for all parents of students on campus or virtually.

The school distributes Information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to Title I parents in a format and language that the parents understand.

Parent information is distributed in everyday common language terms. Acronyms are spelled out and educational vernacular and academic language are rarely used. Written language flyers and correspondence is translated for parents who speak a language other than English, if it is a dominant language at the school site.

The school provides support for parental involvement activities requested by Title I parents.

The school provides many parent involvement activities requested by Title I, School Site Council, Parent Teacher Organization, English Language Advisory Committee parents, Family PBIS Meetings, Family Movie Night, Multicultural Celebration, Trunk or Treat, and daytime students assemblies that parents are invited to come to.

ACCESSIBILITY

Regency Park Elementary provides opportunities for the participation of all Title I parents, including parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory students. Information and school reports are provided in a format and language that parents understand.

All parents are provided opportunities to participate in our many evening events, family nights, and classroom activities, field trips, and festivals. Many of the parents have students that are Title I, English Learners, and/or disabled. Translation services are available to assist parents communicate with school staff, teachers, and principal. The district office provides translators upon request. Our office and the district office is also available to translate any forms or booklets to enhance school home communications. Regency Park is a family-friendly school, where parent involvement, input and access is highly valued.
