

Annual Certification of Proposition 28 Arts and Music in Schools Funding Report

June 11, 2026

Allocation Year = 2023-24

Woodland Joint Unified School District is using the first allocation year to expand art, music, and theater instruction at all schools. The visual and performing arts program in the district has been designed to be supportive of and relevant to the district's diverse student body, of over 9000 students from preschool through high school. The district recognizes the importance of providing rich and engaging visual and performing arts instruction and will continue to use its Arts and Music in School funding to provide opportunities for administrators, teachers, and staff to support creative expression.
