

Los Molinos Unified Farm to Fork Program

Los Molinos Unified School District prides itself on providing hands on food education programs that engage students and connects the classroom with the cafeteria through our school garden and culinary courses.

Our Program:

- School greenhouse and gardens
- Hands-on learning opportunities for students to learn nutrition education
- From scratch cooking in our school nutrition and culinary programs
- Work based learning opportunities for student to earn money caring for our school garden

More information?

530-384-7826

www.lmusd.net

