The scholarship application, together with the requested materials, must be received or postmarked no later than April 15th. All materials, including letters of recommendation, must be included in a single mailing.

The scholarship will be paid over two years in two payments of $1,000.00 each. The first payment will be made following receipt from the awardee of copies of his/her verification of enrollment for the first semester, or quarter equivalent, in 2026. The recipient will be required to carry a minimum of 12 units per semester, or quarter equivalent, and to maintain a grade point average of 2.0 or better to maintain eligibility. The second payment will be made in 2027, upon receipt of an official transcript of the first two semesters, or quarter equivalent, and verification of full-time enrollment in the subsequent school year. If documentation is not received by October 15, 2026, for the first payment, all payments will be considered forfeited. If documentation is not received by October 15, 2027 for the second payment, that payment will be considered forfeited. All written correspondence with the committee must be sent to the address below, to the attention of the Scholarship Committee.

I have read the application and agree to its terms, conditions, and requirements and my signature below affirms that I qualify as an applicant for consideration.
