

What Is the California Proficiency Test?

California Proficiency Program

If you would like to exit high school to begin attending higher education, or start your career, the California Proficiency Program (CPP) may be the perfect for you! The CPP tests are offered in English and Spanish.

The CPP is for students who are

- at least sixteen years of age and currently enrolled in high school;
- in their second semester of tenth grade; or
- enrolled in grade ten for one year or longer.

For more information about the CPP, access the California Department of Education CPP web page.
