

Foster Youth Services Coordinating Program

Foster Youth Education Rights

1. Right to remain in your school of origin: YOUTH INITIALS

- You have the right to stay in the same school after you move to a new foster care placement. Your “school of origin” can be:
  1. The school you attended when you first entered foster care
  2. The school you most recently attended or
  3. Any school you attended in the last 15 months that you feel connected to
- Your school district, education rights holder, caregiver and social worker/probation officer must work with you to develop a plan to transport you to your school of origin
- If you are transitioning from elementary school to middle school or from middle school to high school, you have the right to transition to the same school as your classmates.
- If there is any disagreement about which school you will attend, you have the right to stay in your school of origin until the disagreement is resolved.

2. Right to immediate enrollment in school: YOUTH INITIALS

- You have the right to immediately enroll in your regular home school after you move placements.
- You cannot be forced to attend a continuation school or other alternative education program, such as independent study, even if you are behind in credits or have discipline problems at school.
- You have a right to immediately enroll in school and begin attending classes, even if you do not have the paperwork you would normally need for enrollment (such as birth certificate, transcript or IEP) or you did not check-out from your previous school.
- Your previous school must send your education records to your new school after you enroll.
- You have the right to participate in any activities available at your new school, such as sports teams, tutoring, or after-school clubs, even if you miss a tryout or sign-up deadline.

3. Right to partial credits for high school students: YOUTH INITIALS

- If you change schools during the school year, you have a right to partial credits in all classes that you are passing when you leave your old school, even if you do not complete the entire class.
- After you change schools, your new school must accept the partial credits issued by your old school and update your transcript.
- After you change schools, you have the right to be enrolled in the same or similar classes you were enrolled in at your last school.
- You cannot be forced to retake a class or part of a class that you have already completed with a passing grade, if it would make you off-track for high school graduation.
- You have the right to take or retake any class that you need to go to a California State University or University of California.
- Your grade cannot be lowered because you were absent from school for a court hearing, placement change, or a court-related activity.

4. Graduation rights: YOUTH INITIALS

- If you are behind on your credits and you transferred schools after 10th grade, you may be eligible to graduate under AB167/216 by completing only the state graduation requirements (130 credits in specific classes) instead of your school district’s requirements.
- If you are eligible, the decision of whether to graduate under AB167/216 is made by your education rights holder.
- You have the right to stay in high school for a fifth year to complete your school district graduation requirements, even if you turn 19 years old. (Not applicable if you accept AB167/216 eligibility).

5. College rights: YOUTH INITIALS

- You have the right to have the application fee waived when you apply to a community college in California.
- You have the right to receive the maximum amount of federal student aid and you may be eligible for up to $5,000 per year from the Chafee scholarship.

6. School discipline rights: YOUTH INITIALS

- You cannot be suspended for more than 5 school days in a row or for more than 20 days in a school year.
- You have a right to be told why you are being suspended and the right to provide your version of events and evidence before you are suspended, unless there is an emergency. If the behavior for which you are being suspended could subject you to criminal charges, you should consult with your education rights holder or attorney before providing an oral or written statement to the school or police.
- Your attorney and social worker must be invited to a meeting before your suspension can be extended beyond 5 days and a suspension can only be extended if you are being considered for expulsion.
- You have a right to a formal hearing, and to be represented by an attorney at that hearing, before you are expelled.
- If you are facing a possible expulsion, your attorney and social worker must be notified. If you are in special education, your attorney and social worker must be invited to a meeting to decide whether your behavior was related to your disability.

7. Right to your school records: YOUTH INITIALS

- You have the right to access your school records if you are 16 years or older or have finished 10th grade.
- Your social worker/probation officer, education rights holder and caregiver can access your school records as well.

If you believe your education rights have been violated, you can file a complaint. The school has 60 days to investigate and give you a written response. For information about how to file a complaint please visit: cde.ca.gov/re/cp/uc or call the California Department of Education Coordinated School Health and Safety Office at (916) 319-0914.

By signing my name below, I certify that I have read the above information. Any questions concerning my rights have been discussed.
